

TEEN CRISIS:

Teen Crisis (AKA) Teen Tears: (Designed exclusively for TEENS)

Social and Emotional Development (forum)

Teen Tears is designed for Teens who are going through challenges, personally, physically, emotionally, culturally and socially, any of which that contributes to the breakdown or impediment of a productive and healthy development.

Youths deal with things NOT often verbalized. This section allows the TEEN to express him or herself in the degree or manner in which he/she/they can find HEALING!

Teen Tears emphasizes on the Teen to be able to find adequate Social and Emotional Stability to the point that he/she/they can move forward and assist the next peer as well as make their contribution for a healthy environment and society.

Workshops and Seminar:

If you are an Agency, School or Religious Entity, and hear the Loud Cries or even recognize the Silent Cries of our youths, our Workshops and Seminars are effectively designed to address an array of topics from:

- Thinking (Cognitive),
 - Bullying,
 - Depression,
 - Self-esteem,
 - Peer Pressure,
 - Career Base,
 - Leadership
 - Academics
- And More. . .

Youths deal with things NOT often verbalized. With “I Dream Academy’s” Teens Tears Workshops and Seminars – we’ve seen amazing results from giving them a VOICE to be heard, and more importantly --- to have someone who cares – LISTEN!
